

CAMP READ-A-LOT

Saturday, February 16, from 10:00am to 12:30pm

Reading skills camp for children entering kindergarten through third grade

Camp Read-a-Lot provides fun, FREE activities for area children to keep their reading skills sharp. Children will build vocabulary and expand reading comprehension through:

- Dramatic play
- Games and activities
- Music
- Story time
- Service project
- Lunch

ACTIVITIES-BASED LEARNING

During the camp session, children will enjoy literacy-based activities that are designed to build skills in four areas of literacy: vocabulary, letters and sounds, comprehension, and fluency. They will also enjoy lunch, read great stories, and take part in a service project to give back to the community. Children will even get books to take home and keep (supplies are limited).

INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION

Register online at www.firstumcofakron.org. Space in the program is limited. Please contact us early for more information.

CONTACT US

FIRST UMC OF AKRON

263 E. Mill Street, Akron, Ohio 44308

330.376.8143 | www.firstumcofakron.org | akronfirst@att.net

FREE BOOKS WILL BE GIVEN OUT

While supplies last!

Camp Read-a-Lot is a free program led by certified teachers and trained literacy volunteers. Our mission is to enrich the lives of children and support families by providing literacy resources to cultivate a love of and a development of reading skills in a caring, nurturing, Christian environment.