

Betty Jane CLC Friday Five

Important things you need to know...

For the week of 10/28/19

Hello Families of Betty Jane CLC! This is Mrs. Schmidt, Dean Of Students, with your Weekly Friday Five! Here are the important things to know for the week of October 28, 2019.

1. This week our third grade students will be taking the reading portion of their Ohio State Tests. Please ensure that students arrive on time daily and get plenty of rest each evening.
2. Our Student Ambassador Council is running the canned food drive again this year. Canned food and nonperishable food items will be collected each morning beginning this Monday the 28th until Friday November 8th.
3. All vaccination forms are due by this Thursday, October 31st. This is if you are wishing to grant your child permission to receive the flu vaccine at school.
4. Friday November 1st is our PTA dress down day. Students may wear jeans and pay a dollar.
5. A look ahead to November 5th. There will be no school for students on November 5th (Election Day).

Please remember to check out our Betty Jane website if you would like to review these Friday Five messages under the "News - What's New" section. Additionally, we have posted a brief parent survey where we are asking you to share your opinions regarding our school and opportunities for involvement. Lastly, I would just like to give another gentle reminder to use the parking lot loop for drop off and pick up each day to keep the traffic flow moving smoothly and efficiently.

We thank you all for another amazing week at Betty Jane! We had a great Red Ribbon Week and an awesome Halloween Parade! Thank you for sharing your children with us. Please have a safe and restful weekend!
