

Betty Jane CLC Friday Five

Important things you need to know...

For the week of 11/04/19

Hello Families of Betty Jane CLC!

This is Mrs. Schmidt, Dean Of Students, with your Weekly Friday Five!

Here are the important things to know for the week of November 4, 2019.

1. There will be no school for students on Tuesday, November 5th, as it is an Instructional Improvement Day for teachers and administrators only. Also, Tuesday is Election Day, so please remember to get out and exercise your right to vote.
2. Please remember that our Betty Jane Student Ambassadors are currently holding their canned food drive. Canned food and nonperishable food items are being collected each morning through the end of this week on Friday, November 8th, and then donated to those in need.
3. Please remember to dress your child appropriately for the weather. Please send a coat to school with your child, as we do still go outside for recess unless the wind chill goes down below 20 degrees. Hats and gloves would also be appropriate outdoor gear to send with your child as the weather gets colder.
4. Information and an invitation to our Betty Jane Title One Family Night will be coming home with your child this week. Our Title One Night will be on Wednesday, November 20th. Also, student report cards will be coming home with your child this Wednesday, November 6th. Please check your child's book bag for these very important papers. Should you have any questions, please contact the office or your child's teacher.
5. A gentle reminder to those who signed their child up for Flu Vaccinations: Health Heroes will be here this coming Friday, November 8th, to give vaccinations to any students who signed up.

Please remember to check out our Betty Jane website if you would like to review these Friday Five messages under the "News - What's New" section.

Additionally, as we take a quick look ahead this month - please look for information to come home regarding the upcoming PTA Book Fair which will be held the week of November 11th through the 15th.

We thank you all for another amazing week at Betty Jane! Thank you for sharing your children with us. Please have a safe and restful weekend!
